

Please note the two areas below, shaded in red, where the bank has been excavated to aid water levels. One is upstream of the rowing clubs and the other at the final bend before the finish (at 500m). Take care when passing these areas both up and downstream to ensure you remain in adequate water.

